

WorkWell Evaluation

WorkWell

What is the evaluation of WorkWell?

- To understand if WorkWell is successfully providing people with work and health support, there is a national evaluation.
- This is being carried out by IFF Research, York Health Economics Consortium and CECAN Ltd on behalf of Department for Work and Pensions and Department for Health and Social Care.
- The evaluation includes surveys and interviews with people like you who are participating in WorkWell
- Taking part in the evaluation is entirely voluntary.
- Any information you provide will be held in the strictest of confidence and will be handled securely throughout.
- The research findings will not identify you. You have the right to request a copy of your data, change your data or withdraw from the research at any point.
- Participating in the evaluation will not affect your savings, pensions or any benefits you are receiving.

Why do we need your input?

- ✓ To understand how WorkWell is working and how it is impacting participants.
- ✓ This research will help us to better improve support programmes in the future.

Your Rights and Privacy

When you share your information with us, we will keep it private and safe. Your information will only be used for research to help improve services like WorkWell for you and others. You will never be asked for any bank details as a part of this research.

For any further details on your information, please refer to the participant information sheet.

Who will contact you?

IFF Research are the lead contracted agency conducting the evaluation. They operate under the Market Research Society Code of Conduct.

They will contact you by email and/or by telephone. If you need any information from them you can contact them on:

- 0808 169 9374 (this is free to use)
- workandhealthresearch@iffresearch.com.

If you would like to confirm with the DWP and DHSC that this research is genuine, you can contact the research team at:

- Workwell.evaluationteam@dwp.gov.uk.